The Phoenix Starship Trophy Room. The Starship Phoenix Trophy Hall is a small area in Starship Phoenix where Ratchet and Clank can view trophies they have either found or achieved thanks to gameplay. They are essentially collectibles, similar to titanium bolts, skill points, and trophies in PlayStation 3 and Vita remakes of the game. Once all fifteen trophies have been collected, a locked doorway inside the trophy room will open, leading to a teleport that connects to the Insomnia Museum. Most trophies can be detected or rewarded during the first passing game, but there are a few that can only be achieved in call mode. Ratchet Trophy: Mini Ratchet collect the Ratchet trophy to be found in the Forest of Nabra at Florent. In the second stone temple, climbing the second yellow staircase, turn left and stand on the edge of the balcony. You can go over the edge and jump over part of the roof to get to a separate corner of the roof, where the trophy is. Collecting this trophy character in PlayStation 3 and PlayStation Vita version of Up Your Arsenal will unlock the silver Mini Ratchet trophy. Al trophy Al trophy can be found at Korgon Base on Tirranos. It is specially located on a high stone pillar near the northeastern part of the plasma tower position on the map. Attempting to reach the tower will result in climbing the jump slot to reach the top of the square plateau. Once there, turn around and a pillar with a trophy on top will be visible nearby, with one three-eyed tirranoid to stand on top. Long jump and slide to reach the trophy. The Plumber Trophy Plumber trophy can be found outside the Research Center at Daxx. Follow the same path used to get the charge boots, heading to the left of the landing pad and walking around the island in the process. At the end there will be a small room where the boots were found, with directly behind and to the right of the exit doorway a small balcony with a trophy. Clank Trophy: Secret Agent Clank Collect Clank Trophy Clank Trophy can be found during Ratchet's only mission on Lot 42 at Holostar Studios. Directly after the second provider of Gadgetron is the elevator that requires the Hacker to function. Take a ride on it to the top, but do not enter the next room, instead turn left and jump on a small ledge from the side of the building to find the Klank trophy. Collecting this trophy character in PlayStation 3 and PlayStation Vita version of Up Your Arsenal will open the silver trophy Secret Agent Clank. The Skrunch skrunch trophy can be found in Metropolis, in the second tower near the beginning. After walking through the curved bridge and enter the tower, turn right and climb to the balcony to find it. Dr. Nefarious trophy Dr. Uncheelminous trophy can be found at the crash site on zeldrin. Defeat your enemies closer to the beginning until the path turn that you should ignore. Instead, turn right and jump on a small plateau in the corner to find a trophy hidden in the grass. The Trophy of the zwark Trophy can be found in the shelter of zvarka in the asteroid belt Thran. It is located in a small room from which the caviar is a yuvar bot, left directly in front of his own room. Courtney Gears trophy Courtney Gears trophy can be found in the nefarious BFG area at Coras. After fighting through part of the place is the point where you have to climb a few stacks of metal boxes to reach the square. Climb the drawers, but do not enter the square, and instead turn to walk on the glass balcony of the tower to your right. The trophy will be inside the tower, although note that if you have destroyed the glass with the Bolt Grabber V2 you will have to watch out for your stride and use an auxiliary railing instead. The Lawrence Trophy Lawrence Trophy can be found at the Team Center at Mylon. After using the Hypershot to make it through the gap you will head up the hill, with the left said slope a high tank of sorts. You can use the ladder on the side of the object to climb to the top and grab the trophy. Titan Collector Trophy See also: Up Your Arsenal Titanium Bolt places Titan Collector Trophy awarded while collecting all forty titanium bolts. Aside from this trophy, collecting all the bolts in the PlayStation 3 and PlayStation Vita version of Up Your Arsenal will unlock the Gold PlayStation Network Thorough trophy. Skill Master Trophy See also: Up Your Arsenal Points Of Excellence Mastery Master of The Trophy is awarded while collecting all thirty skill points. I'm going to avoid gushing about it more here (you can read my review for that). As with every PlayStation game, Ratchet and Clank has trophies, and includes the top platinum prize to get them all. Today's Fast Video Tips is all about trophies as we offer a few tips to help you pick up platinum for the latest Ratchet and Clank game. Keep in mind that this is not a complete guide but a helping hand, so you can enjoy the game while still knowing what to look at along the way. The video above covers where to get Map-O-matic, so you can see all the secrets on the map, tells you which trophies to skip through each passage, and goes through some tips for some of the most ambiguously described trophies. Ready to hear these ding trophies? What are we waiting for? Feel free to share your own tips and tips for getting platinum in Ratchet and Clank in the comments below if you see anything great that I missed, and be sure to subscribe to the YouTube channel PlayStation LifeStyle for more quick tips and original videos.
